Answering children's QUESTIONS...

Le Divorce. Answering children's questions

« Is it my fault if they divorce ? »

Julie, aged 7

« Do I have to choose between Mummy and Daddy ? »

Marie, aged 10

« Ought I to be so angry with my parents ? »

Nicolas, aged 9

« I can't cope with my school work ! »

Pierrick, aged 9

« Who's going to look after the house and what about my friends, am I never to see them again ? »

Jonathan, aged 10

« Mummy says she's going to have a new surname, will I have to do the same ? »

Lisa, aged 9

« I don't like Daddy's new girl-friend ! »

Hélène, aged 11

When divorce is under debate, children's questions are often tricky. Children « suffer » in silence, or very noisily, hoping to make their parents, who can't hear or can't see, listen to them. Doctor Cohen Herlem shows parents confronted with these difficulties how to answer their children's questions.

A book written by a specialist who shares her professional experience with us.
